SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 50X1-HUM

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

50X1-HUM

1. The newly constructed asphalted road to the ammunitions depot is about 5-6 m. wide. The ammunitions depot is strongly guarded. Entrances are barred.
2. It is no longer possible to walk around the depot since patrols with machine guns constantly are guarding the narrow road. All the Germans who were employed at the depot have been dismissed. The depot is heavily occupied by Soviet soldiers.

3.

4. At the railroad station one G-car with rifle ammunition was loaded over on air trucks [redacted] by 12 men. It is not known from where the 50X1-HUM shipment came.
5. The road from Wulkow railway station to the right of Wulkow encloses a small airfield. It is not in use; it is about half the size of Nueruppin airfield. The field is completely surrounded by woods and is intended to be used as an auxiliary airfield for Neuruppin. Truck [redacted] drove to the field with four air force officers.
